MARINE CORPS LEAGUE DETACHMENT 1340
VOLUME VII, ISSUE I
JANUARY 2017

FROM THE SR-VICE COMMANDANT

We are in another year and it's time for those resolutions we make to better ourselves, (Of course they are soon forgotten), in any event I hope all of you had a joyful New Year. As far as the league I would like to make a simple resolution to continue with making this the most organized and successful detachment in the state. We succeeded in overcoming many obstacles this past year. We all know what they were so let's learn from the past so we can improve the future. I want to continue the togetherness we forged during the past and build on those accomplishments.

Your board members are confident we can again unite and improve our standing as a group, as we tackle upcoming events. We encourage you to be assured there is no task we cannot undertake and accomplish as a detachment. One thing asked of you is to suggest ways and help with increasing our assets. We are getting very close to our reserve so donations and expenditures will have to be limited, this is a major objective for all of us to resolve. No matter the degree of any negatives facing us we will, without doubt, be a group capable of overcoming hurdles and be looked up to as an example of integrity. Until the next meeting,

Semper Fidelis
John Contos Senior Vice Commandant

FROM THE PAYMASTER'S DESK

Happy New Year to all and hope everyone that got sick during the Holidays, are now on the mend. For those who spent time with family, we hope those times resulted in good memories to last a lifetime. That said it is now a New Year and that time when we have officer elections and set up activities for the coming year.

December was a busy month for the Detachment in which our esteemed Commandant, George Moran, oversaw the organizing of a group for attendance at the Parade of lights. There was a last minute rush, but, it was taken care of. Thanks

Mr. Commandant for all your hard work.

We, also, put together, a somewhat last minute meeting , where we enjoyed Pizza and had more than enough time to enjoy everybody's company. Again kudo's to our Commandant for pulling strings and because of his urgency we made it happen.

Toys 4 Tots came together because Soledad Kennedy and Dan Cadena stepped up, worked hard, and represented our Detachment in a big way. The community knows we are here , the kids receiving toys know we are here, and so were detachment members, who were present when the toys were distributed. A big Thank You to all members that helped and especially Dan and Soledad. John Contos and I were part of the pick up process in picking up toys and we felt a sense of gratitude to all that contributed from the community, many good stories out there, with strangers thanking us for our efforts. It doesn't get better than that during the Christmas season. We were only doing our part however small it may have been.

I would hope our member numbers increase in the coming year and that we get more involvement from the group. Our bills have been paid and our bank balance remains steady. More income needs to be generated in order to facilitate donations and other causes, which are important to the Detachment.

My Thanks to all Board members for working together and putting the good of the Detachment before one's own pride, this past year. It was a big year filled with challenges and here we are again, ready to "hit the beach" again filled with high hopes and experience. Hope to see everyone at our next meeting.

Semper Fidelis,

Armando Moreno

FROM NATIONAL

I wanted to remind everyone of the changes made by National for dues renewals. As you are processing renewals for your members that have an expiration dates between January thru July 2017, only include $10.00 for National Dues. Starting in 2017 everyone will expire on August 31. Please pay close attention to the expiration dates on your rosters while completing your transmittals so that I don't have to return them to you for correction. The Department dues will remain the same. This is going to be a challenging time for all of us paymasters but once we get through the transition it should be a lot easier.

Please let me know if you have any questions and Merry Christmas to you and your families.

Challenge Coin Rules

Rules

Note: A "Coin Check" consists of a Challenge and a Response. The challenge is initiated by drawing your coin, holding it in the air by whatever means possible and state, scream, shout or otherwise verbally acknowledge that you are initiating a coin check. Another, but less vocal method is to firmly place it on the bar, table, or floor (this should produce an audible noise which can be easily heard by those being challenged, but try not to leave a permanent imprint.) If you accidentally drop your coin and it makes an audible sound upon impact, then you have just "accidentally" a coin check. (This is called paying the price for improper care of your coin.)

The response consists of all those persons being challenged drawing their coin in a like manner. If you are challenged and are unable to properly respond, you must buy a round of drinks for the challenger and the group being challenged. If everyone being challenged responds in the correct manner, the challenger must buy a round of drinks for all those people they challenged. Failure to buy a round of drinks is a despicable crime and will require that you turn-in your Coin to the issuing agency.

When-Where

Coin checks are permitted, ANY TIME, ANY PLACE. They apply to those clothed or unclothed. At the time of the challenge you are permitted one step and an arms reach to locate your coin.

MARINE BALL 2016

Professional escort says Marines have the nicest Balls

The following is an opinion article written by Candy Smith, a professional escort from Elko, Nevada.

In my line of work I have a lot of interaction with military personnel from around the world, and I often get invited to various military functions. I've been to plenty of wet-downs, promotions, retirements, homecomings and commissioning ceremonies, but what I love best is their balls.

Of all the balls I have experienced, I like the Marines' the best. They are a real classy affair. My dates always pick me up early because they like to come with me, rather than meet me there. They look so handsome in their dress blues and always provide a stiff arm for me to hold as I am going down the steps to the car. There's usually a souvenir for guests to take home, and sometimes my dates will give it to me in the car before we get there.

When we arrive, they usually buy me a cocktail, and we pose for pictures next to a giant cake. It's so big it barely fits on the table.

Then there's the traditional ceremony, and that is really impressive. It must be so hard for those Marines to stand erect at attention for so long. Even the lady Marines make a nice, tight formation, and they can really grip the flagpole when they are part of the color guard. After the ceremony, there's a fancy dinner, with bread, tossed salad, and a big piece of tender meat. Sometimes I don't eat the meat though and select a fish dish instead, or if I'm not that hungry, I'll just have a tasty muffin for dessert.

Finally we get to dance! It usually starts off slow, with just a couple people swaying back and forth, but then the music picks up, and more people join in, and we go at it for hours. My date and I are usually completely spent by the time the evening ends, but I always have such a nice time.

I've attended a Navy ball and a few Army balls, but they weren't that memorable. I didn't think the Air Force even had balls until I got to see a couple, and they were pretty small affairs.

By far, the Marines have the nicest balls of all.

4 USC 8: Respect for flag Text contains those laws in effect on November 6, 2016
From Title 4-FLAG AND SEAL, SEAT OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE STATES
CHAPTER 1-THE FLAG

§8. Respect for flag

No disrespect should be shown to the flag of the United States of America; the flag should not be dipped to any person or thing. Regimental colors, State flags, and organization or institutional flags are to be dipped as a mark of honor.

(a) The flag should never be displayed with the union down, except as a signal of dire distress in instances of extreme danger to life or property.

(b) The flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water, or merchandise.

(c) The flag should never be carried flat or horizontally, but always aloft and free.

(d) The flag should never be used as wearing apparel, bedding, or drapery. It should never be festooned, drawn back, nor up, in folds, but always allowed to fall free. Bunting of blue, white, and red, always arranged with the blue above, the white in the middle, and the red below, should be used for covering a speaker's desk, draping the front of the platform, and for decoration in general.

(e) The flag should never be fastened, displayed, used, or stored in such a manner as to permit it to be easily torn, soiled, or damaged in any way.

(f) The flag should never be used as a covering for a ceiling.

(g) The flag should never have placed upon it, nor on any part of it, nor attached to it any mark, insignia, letter, word, figure, design, picture, or drawing of any nature.

(h) The flag should never be used as a receptacle for receiving, holding, carrying, or delivering anything.

(i) The flag should never be used for advertising purposes in any manner whatsoever. It should not be embroidered on such articles as cushions or handkerchiefs and the like, printed or otherwise impressed on paper napkins or boxes or anything that is designed for temporary use and discard. Advertising signs should not be fastened to a staff or halyard from which the flag is flown.

(j) No part of the flag should ever be used as a costume or athletic uniform. However, a flag patch may be affixed to the uniform of military personnel, firemen, policemen, and members of patriotic organizations. The flag represents a living country and is itself considered a living thing. Therefore, the lapel flag pin being a replica, should be worn on the left lapel near the heart.

(k) The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning.

(Added Pub. L. 105-225, §2(a), Aug. 12, 1998, 112 Stat. 1497 .)

TOYS FOR TOTS 2016

THANK YOU DAN CADENA JR. & SOLEDAD KENNEDY

Marines and members.

Well...the 2016 Toys for Tots campaign IS OVER!!!! CVD 1340 accomplished its goal and it was done in great fashion.

At 0700 there was a squad of six Marines at the front gate. It was very cold, yet we stood out there keeping the peace. It was nearly an hour before civilian personnel arrived, but we stood by manning our post.

I had a great chance to meet some new and old members of 1340. We talked about the Corps and we didn't let the cold affect us. A little after 0800 I escorted the civilians lined up for the toy distribution, toward the armory front door. We lined up all Toys for Tots participants in good fashion. Before 0900, we were ready to roll!

We had two Marines in blues at the ready. They started to hand out candies and goodies to the kids and we started the process. Just like boot camp chow hall fashion, we had the civilian as..... to belly buttons. It was great! My fellow Marines helped get the civilians through in record time. The participants were even amazed at how quick the process was going.

I met two female Girl Scout representatives, who had volunteered some Girl Scouts to help. They were so impressed that they stated, "I cannot believe how incredibly organized the process is!"

The people were rushed through so quickly that we finished with the entire lot in record time. We finished two hours ahead of schedule! This is due to the resolve of the Marines and members of 1340...OOOOOHRAAH!

I want to thank my fellow members of 1340. They came, they saw and they got the job done. And to the silent volunteers who put out the toy drop-off boxes, the members who came in at the last second to help move material, pick up toys, organize events for the benefit Toys for Tots, I say, "Great job guys!" It was worth it.

At the end of the day we had a 14-member squad participating. I could not have asked for more. 1340 should be proud.

Semper Fi!

Dan
